“Hyperledger Foundation is leading the charge in enterprise blockchain education, awareness and adoption through global, open source collaboration. Our members are the driving force in this effort. Working together, we are building technologies that are transforming existing markets and creating new ones. And we are only getting started. Our open, global ecosystem is built to support the extensive, multiparty systems that are the future of information sharing and transactions. Blockchain is a long game, and our community is at the core of it.” – Hyperledger Executive Director Daniela Barbosa

Premier Members Hyperledger Foundation comprises a diverse community, including more than 200 members, spanning across industries and regions. For the complete member listing, visit hyperledger.org/members
